

JMM
2021
WDS

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
1 For persons suffering from anxiety 	2 For persons suffering from kidney ailments 	3 For person who suffer from dementia 	4 For persons who suffer from cancer 	5 For persons who suffer from Parkinson's disease 	6 For persons who suffer from eye ailments 	7 For person who suffer from epilepsy
8 For persons who suffer from degenerative ailments 	9 For persons at the end of life 	10 For persons who suffer from respiratory ailments 	11 For persons affected by the consequences of the pandemic 	12 For persons who are suffering from hereditary illnesses 	13 For persons suffering from ailments of the gut 	14 For persons affected by infectious diseases
15 For SASMAD volunteers and all caregivers 	16 For persons waiting for a diagnosis, surgery, or treatment 	17 For children who suffer from developmental illnesses. 	18 For persons affected by the illness of a loved one 	19 For hospital workers, health care workers and their families. 	20 For those whose mental health is affected by prolonged confinement. 	21 For persons living on the street.
22 For representatives of all religious confessions who give support to those who are sick 	23 For those who experience moments of discouragement in their illness 	24 For those who are sick and afflicted who see God in faith and in prayer 	25 That each person may strengthen their faith and hope during their illness 	26 Let us pray to the Virgin Mary to learn to listen to those who entrust themselves to us. 	27 Let us pray for sick and handicapped persons who are most isolated 	28 Let us pray for care givers who also need our support.

“YOU HAVE BUT ONE TEACHER AND YOU ARE ALL BROTHERS” (MT 23:8)